FOUNDRY AND MACHINE PLANT CHANGES HANDS

Charleroi Iron Works Acquires Property by Purchase

TO ENLARGE BUSINESS

New Equipment Will be Installed and Two Plants Will be Operated Jointly

Negotiations have just been closed for the purchase of the Charleroi Iron Works of the Charleroi Foundry and Machine company property on McKean avenue. The deal is considered a most important one that will preserve the greater development of the iron manufacturing and machine and foundry industry in Charleroi.

A part of the plan of the purchasing company is to effect a reorganization, put in additional capital and enlarge the present plant of the foundry and machine company. The two industries will be combined, the iron works to be moved from its present location below Ninth street to the foundry and machine company buildings above the Walton Lumber company's yard.

With the general change additional space will be needed, but it is available. The present foundry and machine plant does not cover all the ground that it owns. New buildings will probably be erected. New machinery will be installed. The latest equipment for an iron manufacturing plant will be included. At present there is a heavier demand for the output of the iron works than the present accommodations can supply. With more room and new machinery the trade can be well handled. The foundry and machine plant will be operated to the fullest extent, according to present plans. There will be repair shops and arrangements will be made for manufacturing castings.

The Charleroi Iron Works is one of Charleroi's most progressive "smaller" industries. It manufactures all kinds of architectural and ornamental iron work, railings, stairs, fire escapes, jail cells, brackets, fences, illuminating cellar doors, window guards, gratings, grills and any number of other things. Isaac Wakefield is the general manager of the plant. At the present time the iron works is engaged on a contract for stairs to be put in a new California building.

DONORA TO VOTE ON SCHOOL BOND ISSUE

Clerk Harry Campbell of the county commissioners' office is preparing ballots for a special election to be held at Donora May 6, when the voters of that growing town are to decide whether the school district shall be bonded for $100,000 for school purposes. The statement as to the use of the money is as follows:

"Shall the indebtedness of the school district of the borough of Donora be increased by an issue of bonds in the sum of $100,000 for the purpose of providing a fund out of which $25,000 shall be applied toward the payment of the floating debt of said school district and $75,000 of which fund shall be used to pay the cost and expense of the erection of a school building for said school district?"

Factory Fire Loss Slight

Firemen Called Out at Night by Alarm From Imperial Glass Plant

The firemen had a run Thursday night at about 10:30 o'clock to the Imperial Glass company's factory at Tenth street to find that their presence was hardly necessary. A foot-board at one of the tanks at the plant had turned in the alarm though the had turned in the alarm though the slight conflagration could have been controlled by the factory fire fighting apparatus. Little damage was done, though considerable excitement was caused.

TO START WORK SOON

Contractor Arrigo Files Bond of $2,000 on Paving Contract

MAY BEGIN ON MONDAY

At an adjourned meeting of council Thursday evening the bond of Thomas Arrigo for $2,000 insuring the faithful performance of his contract to grade, curb and pave portions of Fallowfield avenue and portions of Long alley was accepted. Contractor Arrigo, who was awarded the contract at a meeting held on Tuesday night is making arrangements to start the work of grading on Monday. Fallowfield from Ninth street to its intersection with Lincoln avenue below Tenth street and Long alley from First to Fourth streets and from Eighth to Eleventh streets are to be paved.

An ordinance was taken up setting the grade for a sidewalk on the west side of Lincoln avenue from Sixth street to Thirteenth street. It passed first reading and was ordered printed and posted.

A request was presented from the police department to the effect that arrangements be made in the lockup building for keeping the automobile patrol. The matter was placed in the hands of the real estate committee.

Goes to Philippines.

Leigh Lewis, a well-known Monessen young man, who recently has been attending the University of Tennessee, is home on a visit with his parents and is preparing to leave shortly for the Philippines where he will take a commission as lieutenant in the regular army. Lewis is well known in Charleroi.

PRICES AEROPLANE ON FOOD SUPPLIES

Potatoes Advance to $1.00 a Bushel and Meat Keeps Soaring--Whole Trouble is Blamed on the Flood

Floods, tornadoes and other unusual happenings throughout several of the western states have affected considerably the prices of food. Meats and potatoes among other things are selling higher than they have for years, and all because it is hard to get them through from the west promptly, is the statement made by those who set the prices.

Potatoes have jumped from 70 to 75 cents to $1 a bushel retail rate with a suddenness that is surprising. There are not as many to be had eted retail at 26 cents a pound. Veal is up with the birds. Round steak is selling at no less than 20 cents a pound retail, and loin is being marketed retail at 25 cents a pound. Veal and lamb are high. Lamb prices range from 20 to 25 according to grade and veal goes as high as 28.

Prices have been advanced just within the last few days. On the wholesale price of cattle there has been an increase of 1-2 cent a pound in ready market. This looks small but isn't when there is heavy buying.

THOUSANDS AT SPRING OPENING

Constant Stream of Humanity Pours Through Pfeig-hardt Store Thursday

WAS BEST IN HISTORY

Thousands, it might be said, visited the furniture and carpet house of W. B. Pfeighardt on Fallowfield avenue Thursday when his annual spring opening was held. The event was a notable one, made so by the lavish entertainment provided by Mr. Pfeighardt and his assistants.

The store which has the honest claim to being the best arranged and most handsome and complete along the Monongahela valley this side of McKeesport, had its beauty enhanced with decorative pieces. Potted flowers and greens were used tastefully.

In the afternoon there was a crowd but in the evening there was a crush. Orchestral music was furnished by an orchestra of five pieces afternoons and evening on the second floor and dancing added to the gaiety of the occasion.

There were four demonstrations during the day. The first one that attracted the visitor as he entered was the Victrola demonstration. Representatives of the Victor company were on hand and gave recitals on the high priced machines. Another most interesting demonstration and one that attracted very great attention was that of the McDougall Kitchen cabinet. This cabinet seems to have a place for everything that is used in a kitchen. The Visible range was demonstrated and hot biscuits were made and distributed from it during the day. Stearns & Foster representatives were at the store to demonstrate the mattress that they manufacture and which has become famous.

Mr. Pfeighardt carries what is the very best in furniture and house equipment, and in his spacious store it was showed at its best. He carries in stock all classes of suites manufactured from all the best grades of material. His house is filled with what is the latest.

Handsome souvenirs were given to each adult visitor. People came from many points to attend the opening. There were large crowds from Monessen, Belle Vernon and other nearby points. As an opening the event was one of the best that this part of the valley ever witnessed. As one visitor remarked, Pfeighardt always does things right.

Mr. Pfeighardt estimates that be-

SENDS A LARGE ORDER

Announcement has come from William A. Johnston of Barborton, O., to Greensburg boys that he has shipped 1,400 bags of marbles for distribution among the boys. The juvenile population is rejoicing.

Mr. Johnston, who is a brother of Jesse K. Johnston of Charleroi spent his boyhood days in Greensburg. Like Jesse K. Johnston, who is giving away cherry trees to boys in Charleroi, he desires to do something to make the juveniles happy.

The marbles have been shipped to Postmaster R. A. F. Lyon and Col. George Detar, who in days gone by were opponents of Mr. Johnston as marble players.

CLASS CONFIRMED BY BISHOP AT THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Rt. Rev. Gortlandt Whitehead, bishop of the Pittsburgh diocese of the Episcopal church, visited Charleroi Thursday and confirmed a class of 14 at St. Mary's Episcopal church in the evening. The class was composed mostly of adults. Rt. Rev. Whitehead preached before the confirmation on the subject "What the Episcopal Church Stands For." He complimented Rev. L. W. Shey, rector and the vestry on their good work in this parish.

ROAD BOND QUESTION BACK IN COMMITTEE

Degree to be Exemplified

Local Knights of Columbus to go to Pittsburg on Sunday

Fully 100 members of Charleroi council No. 956 Knights of Columbus, will go to Pittsburg on Sunday to be present at the exemplification of the third degree of the order, which will take place at 2 o'clock at Duquesne Garden. A class of 160 candidates will receive the degree which will be exemplified by District Deputy Supreme Knight A. S. McSwain, assisted by a team from Erie and Cleveland. The exemplification will be the last in the Pittsburg district until next fall.

MONEY FOR SUFFERERS

Business Men's Associations to Gather Subscriptions

COMMITTEE TO SOLICIT

The question of subscribing aid for the flood sufferers of Ohio and other states came up for discussion at a meeting of the Charleroi Business Men's Association held Thursday night. An executive committee consisting of Kerfoot W. Daly, R. H. Rush and E. W. Hastings, was appointed to receive contributions and sub-committees will be appointed to solicit subscriptions, which are to be printed in the Mail.

The question of establishing more lights about the Charleroi streets was brought up and discussed and there is a likelihood that the location of new lights will be urged. There was a good attendance at the meeting.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom, to remove from our midst and roll of membership, our beloved Brother John Watkinson, who was called away after a few months of painful illness on March 3, 1913 and by whose death Tom Bowling Lodge has lost a faithful and diligent member. Therefore we as members and officers of the above Lodge wish to tender to you his bereaved wife, and family our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in this time of sorrow. And we bid you and your family take comfort in the thought that where he has gone, there will be no more pain or suffering and look up to Him, who says come unto me all ye that are weary and heavy laden and I will give you rest. Lord not my will, But Thine be done.

Coup is Pulled Off With Result That Vote is Delayed

FIGHTS EXTRAVAGANCE

Militant Minority of Appropriations Committee on the Warpath

Harrisburg, April 4—In an effort to get through a bill providing that the funds derived from the proposed bond issue of $50,000,000 for state roads be apportioned to the various counties in proportion to the number of miles of roads in each to be improved, the resolution for the proposed amendment to permit the issue was referred back to the committee in the house Thursday. The opponents of the administration took advantage of the absence of many of the members who had started home to make the coup and they succeeded in pulling it off.

Governor Tener was much annoyed at this delay, but will exert every effort to get the resolution through. It is not at all likely that the resolution can be defeated, but the opponents of the administration are doing all they can to harass the measure and delay it.

A militant minority, which soon may become a majority among the 40 members of the house appropriations committee is fighting alleged extravagant bills calling for the expenditure of state funds. There are appropriation bills before the committee totaling more than $100,000,000, while the estimated revenue of the State during the next two years is about $52,000,000. The minority faction is demanding that appropriations for charitable and educational purposes be given precedence over what are regarded as attempts to squander State money.

The minimum wage bill introduced by Representative Bigger of Allegheny was advanced from second to third reading in the house. The measure provides for the appointment of a commission by the governor to thoroughly investigate the wages of women and girls employed in the various industries throughout the State to study their modes of living and the cost and dangers thereof.

The Sheatz mothers' compensation bill, which provides that the various counties with state aid may pay to a mother a certain sum monthly for the support of her children passed second reading in the house.

At the instance of the Consumers' League, which has evinced a keen interest in the measure the bill creating a department of labor and industry was amended as it passed the house on second reading so that a woman will be placed upon the board.

Speaker Altar served notice that when the house adjourned Thursday until next Monday that the members must come back next week prepared for a Friday's session. Some of the members are getting anxious to adjourn, now that all their pay was drawn on April 1.

IT IS WORKING.

The statement this week that
since the institution of the parcel post by the United States government the business of transporting
small packages by the various express companies has fallen off twenty-five per cent is significant. This means that a big toll of exorbitant
charges has for years and years been
unjustly exacted from the public,
just because the big express companies had enough influence in Congress to keep the government from utilizing its postal service in its proper sphere.

What would have been the result
if the untold millions in postal deficits had been saved to the people together with the billions more of excess transportation charges the public has paid to the express companies
all these years is difficult to imagine.
Perhaps the press of the high cost of living might not have been so acute
as it is today. When it is considered that this is only one item out of thousands of others where special interests have profited at the expense of the public, it is no wonder that the accumulated burden is beginning to drag. The postal parcel post is working and is saving the people money.

In addition to the saving, the object lesson should be still more valuable, as it shows the people that they can run the government for the benefit of the many instead of the few.

WOULD PAY DIVIDENDS.

Concerning the Sheatz bill, which has been introduced in the state senate giving the people the privilege to use the school houses as social centers and community meeting places,
the matter is favorably commented on
by the Harrisburg Telegraph thusly:
"The Sheatz bill to make public school buildings available for social gatherings and community purpose is founded upon principles of philanthropy and efficiency. It would enable us to pay better dividends, so
to speak, on our costly school properties and it would in time improve the moral tone of the community.
Harrisburg has proved these things without following them up as should

have been done."

The need of social centers and meeting places for the people is what promotes the popularity of the saloon and the private drinking club.
Jack London, in the Saturday Evening Post, says that John Barleycorn
gets in his insidious work by first providing a meeting place and social-ability and men cultivate his acquaintance as a matter of duty in payment
for the chance to get shelter, warmth and fellowship. When the public furnishes this opportunity for warmth, shelter and unrestrained
fellowship under normal conditions
the temptation to drink and gamble will be reduced to minimum. The school house used as social centers
would surely be a dividend paying proposition.

She was just sixteen she said.

Speaking of the tariff, wonder if they won't turn it over to Bryan for the final say. And wonder if the country wouldn't be glad if they did.

Imagine what a cubist cartoon of
the new cabinet would look like.

A St. Louis girl who was sent to

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Rev. Charles E. Snyder of the Pittsburg Unitarian Church preached last Sunday night on "The Modern Newspaper." He said: "The newspaper is one of the three most influential agencies of education today. Society itself is the greatest educator,
the school the next and the newspaper
comes next, practically having more influence than the church, as it reaches more people.

"This condition is not an evidence of the passing need of the church as an educational influence, but an indication of the importance with which the churches have permitted themselves to degenerate. Wrapped in sommolence and self-satisfaction and stupid in the consciousness of divine election the great number of the churches long ago dropped out of the procession and have but little influence in public education.

"The newspapers take their place
and assume the immense responsibility of leadership for truth in fact
and in thinking, for intellectual honesty, for moral purpose, and for social righteousness."

An agricultural paper tells how
one farmer keeps his boys happy and contented on the farm. The farmer
narrates his system thusly:

"I wa'n't feelin' very good the other day and I went down to Jim Hit-son's a bit. I told the boys to hoe corn till I got back. Jack's eleven, Dan's ten, and Mike's eight, yeh
know? Wal, when I got back yere, they all wuz knockin' a ball about with a stick! Jimminy! I cut a big switch and lit into all of 'em, and I whaled 'em good and plenty. They went off tuh the field a-bawlin' each with his hoe. Haw, haw, haw!
They'll hoe that corn now."

Literary Coincidence.
Resemblance does not always mean
plagiarism. There was no plagiarism certainly in Newman's line, "The night
is dark, and I am far from home," though it has been pointed out that it almost exactly reproduces a line in a play printed in 1599. This play is
"Two Angry Women of Abington," by Henry Porter, and the original line was, "Tis late and dark, and I am far from home."

POPPING CORN.

Why the Heat Literally Turns the Grains Inside Out.

A grain of popcorn is filled with tightly packed starch grains. The interior of the grain is divided into a large number of cells, each of which may be likened to a tiny box, the walls whereof are sufficiently strong to withstand considerable pressure from with-
in. Upon the application of heat the moisture present in each little box is converted into steam that finally escapes by explosion.

To obtain a satisfactory popping there is required a very high degree of heat. This causes the greater part of the cells to explode simultaneously.
The grain of corn then literally turns inside out and is transformed into a relatively large mass of snow white starch.

If corn be old and dry it will not pop satisfactorily. A few cells near
the center of the grain may burst,
but the general result will be unsatisfactory. At the base of the kernels,
where they are attached to the cob,
the cells appear to be driest, and it has been observed that these cells are seldom broken in the popping.

Practically all the popcorn raised for market in this country comes from
New England. Great quantities of it are popped, buttered and packed for sale all over the United States—
Harper's Weekly.

For Hair Health

If Rexall "93" Hair Tonic does
not improve the health of your
scalp and hair, we will pay for what you use during the trial.

We could not so strongly endorse Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and continue to sell it to the same people if it did not do all we claim. Should it not prove entirely satisfactory our customers would lose faith in us, we would lose their patronage, and our business would suffer.

If your hair is falling out or you suffer any scalp trouble, we believe Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will do more
to eradicate the dandruff, give health
to the scalp, stimulate new hair
growth and prevent premature baldness than any other human agency.

We want you to make us prove this. We ask you to risk no money whatsoever. Buy a bottle of Rexall
"93" Hair Tonic, use it according to directions for thirty days; then if you are not entirely satisfied, come
and tell us and we will promptly hand
back the money you paid us for it.
We won't ask you to sign anything, nor even to bring the bottle back. We won't obligate you in any way. We will take your mere word. Could anything be more fair?
Could we do anything more to prove
our belief in Rexall "93" Hair Tonic,
and our honesty of purpose in recommending it to you?

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is as pleasant to use as spring water and has
but a faint, pleasing odor. It comes in two sizes of bottles, 50c and $1.00.

Give Yourself a Square Deal THE COLONIAL is the Square Deal Market

This Means:

If you buy your meats, butterine, eggs, cheese, tea and coffee at the "Colonial Market" you know at once you are getting a "square deal" for the following reasons:

All our meats and butterine are U. S. Government inspected.
Our eggs are guaranteed strictly fresh.
Our prices are as low as any for quality food stuffs.
We do not buy or sell old cows or seconds but positively all "top" steers, calves, hogs and lambs.
Our market is clean and sanitary.
We don't allow patrons to handle our meats, etc.
We sell no cold storage but nothing except home dressed young poultry.

This is the only market in Charleroi at which you can get S.
& H. Green Stamps.

We are exclusive agents for Moxley's Special and Oak Grove Butterine also Peter's Celebrated Hams, Bacon and Lard. This is how the Colonial Market's "square deal" benefits you.

Result: No matter what you buy at the "Colonial Market" it is fresh and of high quality, therefore we guarantee everything we sell. Your money back if not satisfied.

AMONG THE THEATRES

THE COYLE-CHARLEROI.

The great sociological phenomenon—a dual personality—that is the subject of more or less scientific controversy, and which is so strikingly portrayed in fiction by Robert Louis Stevenson in "Dr. Jeckyl and Mr. Hyde," was shown in moving picture drama at the Coyle Theatre this week. With King Boggot starring in the dual characters, a most dramatic presentation was the result. The story is of the successful young physician who, wealthy, and successful, is a deep student of scientific investigation. In his normal senses he is charitable and humane, spending much time and practice in prescribing for charitable patients. In the seclusion of his laboratory he discovers that the action of a certain drug transforms the character as well as the personality of human beings entirely, and that another drug will restore the original personality. He tries the experiment on himself, and becomes a veritable demon, prowling about nights, and consorting with the lowest types of humanity. Finally he gets the spells without the use of the drug and cannot control himself. After committing murder and other acts of violence, and breaking the heart of his fiancée, he dies under the spell of the dual personality. As the physician he is Dr. Jeckyl. As the degenerate he is Mr. Hyde. "The Battle of Bull Run" in three parts, the great feature Friday night, was by the same company as produced "Sheridan's Ride." A strong bill is on for Saturday, featuring the great drama of "The Flaming Arrow."

THE PALACE-CHARLEROI.

A quartet and two teams compose perhaps the strongest vaudeville bill yet presented at the Palace Theatre which opened Thursday night for the balance of the week with matinee Saturday. The Four Londons, are four very clever young women, who in dazzling costumes present singing and dancing acts in team work and separately. Solos, duets, and trios, of popular and classical music, charmingly rendered, furnished a varied program, which was heartily enjoyed during the performance. In dancing, one of the quartet exhibits a degree of skill and grace that affords a fitting climax to their program. Clair and Metcalf are of rare ability, Miss Metcalf rendered most charmingly and effectively "Goodbye," by Tosti. She has a fine mezzo-soprano voice well cultivated. Clair is a baritone, and rendered some solos with fine effect. Their duet, "My Hero," from the "Chocolate Soldier," was exceptionally well rendered. "The Great Margo," in "The Silent Players," gave a delightful little skit, where the lady advance agent of a troupe of burlesque artists most effectively "strings" a rural old jasper, who is a grocer, opera house manager, drayman and constable. There is a bunch of delightful slang in the skit, but at the same time it is clean and funny, with nothing suggestive. Friday night the Pathe Weekly is shown, as well as the usual service of moving pictures, which is changed nightly. The vaudeville is making a great hit at the Palace and every bill has brought good houses.

THE STAR-CHARLEROI.

Manager Tom B. Cowan started the week with a big special feature and double show at the Star Theatre. This was "The Favorite Son," a two reel Kay Bee, and "The Nobleman's Triumph," or the Winning of the Heiress." The latter was a powerful society drama, which appealed to the sentimental side of humankind. The Kay Bee film, however, was a winner. It tells the story of a war drama, where a young man, the favorite son, enlists, but is a coward at heart. His brother saves him from the disgrace of a coward on the battle field, performing many acts of self-sacrifice. The favorite son tells his brother's sweetheart that the latter is killed in battle and persuades her to marry him. The missing brother returns and the coward is finally killed in battle and the story ends properly. The Star's repertoire was rich in humor this week one of the best funny films being "Why Mrs. McFadden Looked Out." The Mutual Weekly is billed for Saturday, and is particularly interesting. "A Mystery of Wall Street," "The Jealous Waiter" and "The Stolen Purse" were some of the most interesting dramas of the week. The Saturday week end bill is most attractive.

THE ALVIN-PITTSBURG.

Mrs. Leslie Carter will appear at the Alvin Theatre, Pittsburg, next Monday night for the week and will present during the engagement an interesting repertoire consisting of four splendid plays. They are A. W. Pinero's "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray" on Monday, Friday and at the Saturday matinee; "Zaza" on Tuesday; "Camille" at the matinee and night performances on Wednesday and Pinero's comedy "The Gay Lord Quex" on Saturday night. The role of Paula Tanqueray is one of the most exacting, most powerful and strongly emotional that Mrs. Carter has ever been seen in. Every phase of her dramatic art is brought out in her portrayal of Paula. There is a new generation of the theatregoers that has never seen Mrs. Carter as Zaza, because she has not appeared in the part in the last six years. As Mrs. Carter will not be seen as Zaza again the close of her present season those who have never seen her wonderful acting of a role which when first done, brought forth comparisons with the greatest acting ever exhibited by Sara Bernhardt, should avail themselves of the final opportunity.

"Camille" is one of the best plays technically the theatre knows, and has been acted times without number by players great and small. Pinero's "The Gay Lord Quex" has been and still remains one of the most notable of theatrical successes. It has made a greater sensation than any comedy written in the English language in last quarter of a century. Each play will be handsomely produced with special scenery for each play, and Mrs. Carter is said to display in these different roles costumes that are gorgeous and that are stunning and beautiful. She will have a large company.

THE NIXON-PITTSBURG.

All the Oriental splendor of the Indian Durbar which King George V of England journeyed to Delhi in India to take part in elaborate new production of "Ben-Hur," which inaugurates an engagement at the Nixon Theatre the week commencing Monday evening April 14, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday. Never before in the history of the world has there been so much wealth expended on the presentation of a historical spectacle. Flashing jewels, dazzling amor, magnificent robes, superb draperies, the marvelous rugs of the Far East, the costly furnishings of two thousand years ago—all these things are combined and displayed in the wonderful revival. Carpenters, electricians and a horde of other workers are now in possession of the Nixon Theatre stage, getting ready for this production and when the curtain does rise on the solemn and beautiful scene in the desert where the Wise Men are waiting for the signal, the Star of Bethlehem, to point them the way to the Messiah, the spectator will view the spectacular achievement of American stagecraft. With this new spectacle Klaw and Erlanger have built for themselves a monument as enduring as the name of Shakespeare in the glories and beauties of the new setting for the greatest story the world has ever known, "The Tale of the Christ." The sale of seats begins Thursday, April 10. The prices are 50c to $1.50.

THE DUQUESNE-PITTSBURG.

By all odds, the most noteworthy attraction announced thus far by the Harry Davis Stock Players at the Duquesne Theatre, this season, will be the first performance in stock, next week, of the most successful play of the present century, "The Man From Home," by Booth Tarkington and Harry Leon Wilson, in which William Hodge starred for six consecutive seasons with triumphant success. The play, as everybody knows, is a very effective expose of the international marriage question, and especially the particular phase thereof that pertains to the alliance of scions of noble families with the daughters of American millionaires. The central character of the drama is a quaint and shrewd country lawyer from Kokomo, Indiana, to whom has been entrusted the guardianship of the son and daughter of a wealthy old friend. They are both dispatched to the Continent, to complete their education. There they meet a titled but impoverished British family, who gather them into their coils, and arrange a marriage between the son of the household and the daughter of the Yankee millionaire. This they almost succeed in doing, when the lawyer—Daniel Voorhees Pike appears on the scene. It does not take him long, however, to discover their plot. His quiet, unobtrusive but determined personality soon makes itself felt and he finally lays bare their schemes and puts the entire kit and boodle of adventurers to rout. Charles Gunn will have this famous Hodge part of Daniel Voorhees Pike at the Duquesne, next week, when the Davis Players present the piece for the first time there in stock and at the popular prices current at the Duquesne.

Charleroi's Big Store

O-dori Street, Tokyo.
One of the most densely peopled spots in the world is O-dori street, Tokyo. The long thoroughfare known as Gliza, which runs from near the Shimbashi railway station to Spec-tacles bridge, is made up of several streets with different names, some old and modern, some old fashioned and some new. If the earth were suddenly to gape open wide in that portion known as O-dori street at any hour of the day there is no other thoroughfare in the Japanese city where the results to human life would be more fatal, for here the tide of human life runs the highest. But O-dori street is extremely narrow, so that the density of the crowd does not make the daily figures much above the 300,000 mark. Unlike most of the other important cities of the world, this thickly populated commercial district of Tokyo is situated outside the city walls.—Strand Magazine.

The Fiddle Drill.
The "fiddle drill" is one of the oldest stone-cutting tools in existence. It is said to antedate Greek sculpture and is in use today in about the same form as it was 2,000 years ago. As its name implies, its action resembles a fiddle. The drill is of two pieces. In one hand a carver holds the drill stock, which is like a carpenter's brace, except that it is straight instead of having a crank. In the other hand he holds the "bow," which is a long thin rod of brass wire and which is given a turn around the drill stock. To use the drill the carver places the drill stock against his breast, holding it with his left hand, and with his right he draws the bow back and forth, fiddle fashion. This imparts a rotary motion to the drill stock, and the drill is ground to cut in either way it turns. The fiddle drill is used in the finest work, in carvings where the sculptor could not reach with his chisel and hammer without endangering the carving.

THE SIMPLE LIFE.

No Trouble For Australian Aborigines to Break Camp.

"Apart from ceremonies and dances, the one great break in the monotony of life is paying visits to strange camps. Packing up is not a tedious process. The man simply walks out of camp, carrying his spears, spear thrower, boomerangs and shield; the woman takes the youngest child across her hip, balances a pitchi on her head, and, with one arm round the child and a digging stick in her free hand, she is ready for the road. The girl children and younger women look after the puppies, which are never left behind on any account, and, when unable to walk, are carried in pitchis like young babies."

"Two minutes at most is all the time required for an aboriginal family to pack up and start and there is no trouble in regard to the house while the owners are away. If any one chooses to occupy it during their absence he can do so, but the owners will see at a glance who has been in possession while they have been away."

WHISTLER AT WORK.

The Eccentric Artist Had a Method That Was All His Own.

In "Memories of James McNeill Whistler," by Thomas R. Way, the author allows us a glance at the artist's methods during his residence at the white house in Tite street, built from the designs of his friend, E. W. Godwin, the architect.

"The studio was surprisingly different from the room he previously used in Lindsay row, and entirely unlike the studios usually occupied by other artists. I remember a long, not very lofty room, very light, with windows along one side; his canvas beside his model at one end and at the other, near the table which he used as a palette. An old Georgian looking glass, so arranged that he could readily see his canvas and model reflected in it. Those who used such a mirror (as he did constantly) will know that it is the most merciless of critics. "I marveled then at his extraordinary activity, as he darted backward and forward to look at both painting and model from his point of view at the extreme end of the long studio. He always used brushes of large size with very long handles, three feet in length, and held them from the end with his arm stretched to its full extent. Each touch was laid on with great firmness, and his physical strength enabled him to do without the assistance of a maulstick, while the distance at which he stood from the canvas allowed him to have the whole of a large picture in sight and so judge the correct drawing of each touch."

MADE THE CLERKS WORK.

A Senator Wanted Information and Found a Way to Get It.

"Congress makes lots of unnecessary queries for the government clerks," said a veteran employee, "but the first time I know of occurred some time ago. A certain senator asked the comptroller of the currency to tell him how much stock a certain man had in a national bank. He was informed that such information was regarded as confidential and could not be given out."

"Well, see about that," said the senator, who was plainly disappointed and annoyed. Several days later he secured the passage of a resolution calling upon the secretary of the treasury to furnish the senate with the names and addresses of the stockholders in all the national banks in the country. He wanted to know only the interest of one man in a bank, but he knew that if he got a resolution of that kind through the senate, so he included the stockholders in all national banks.

It took the entire force of the comptroller's office several weeks to prepare the information, and when it reached the senate nobody paid any attention to it except the author of the resolution, and he merely looked at the mass of papers only long enough to see about the man he was after and then tossed the papers aside. It was an immense lot of work for nothing."—Washington Star.

HOME TALENT PLAY TO BE GIVEN HERE BY LOCAL CHURCH

Under direction of Tom Cunningham, a four-act comedy drama will be produced at Turner Hall by local talent Tuesday and Wednesday nights of next week, April 8 and 9. The company is composed chiefly of young people of St. Mary's Episcopal church and the proceeds are for the benefit of the church fund. The name of the play is "The Estrangement." It is a story of domestic life, where a talented and handsome wife becomes infatuated with a foreign artist and so far forgets her duties as wife and mother as to consent to an elopement. After a number of thrilling and sensational situations, the woman's better nature asserts itself, and she is brought to a realization of her mistake. The plot is full of bright and sparkling comedy as well as dramatic situations and presents a healthy moral.

Tom Cunningham, who has charge of the production was formerly coach of the Green Room Club of Franklin-Marshall college. Miss Marjorie Williams, who has successfully appeared in various home talent productions, will have the leading feminine role in the play, while the other parts are taken by young people who have had more or less experience in the same line.

How Careless! A circus man tells a story illustrating how soft hearted and sympathetic some of the ringmasters are when the acrobats get hurt. The heroine of the story was a girl who did the four horse act, the six horse act, the trapeze and the flying bar, for all of which she received the princely remuneration of $40 a week. One day she fell forty feet from the trapeze and landing precipitately and all advised on her left wrist, broke the bone near the elbow. The ringmaster ran up and sympathized as follows with certain profane remarks which are here excluded. "What in thunder do you mean by falling out of that trapeze? I'm a sor of a gun if some of you gals don't try to put a crimp into this show every time we lift the tent!"—Popular Magazine

FOUNDRY AND MACHINE PLANT CHANGES HANDS

Charleroi Iron Works Acquires Property by Purchase

TO ENLARGE BUSINESS

New Equipment Will be Installed and Two Plants Will be Operated Jointly

Negotiations have just been closed for the purchase by the Charleroi Iron Works of the Charleroi Foundry and Machine company property on McKean avenue. The deal is considered a most important one that will pressage the greater development of the iron manufacturing and machine and foundry industry in Charleroi. A part of the plan of the purchasing company is to effect a reorganization, put in additional capital and enlarge the present plant of the foundry and machine company. The two industries will be combined, the iron works to be moved from its present location below Ninth street to the foundry and machine company buildings above the Walton Lumber company's yard.

With the general change addition as space will be needed, but it is available. The present foundry and machine plant does not cover all the ground that it owns. New buildings will probably be erected. New machinery will be installed. The latest equipment for an iron manufacturing plant will be included. At present there is a heavier demand for the output of the iron works than the present accommodations can supply. With more room and new machinery the trade can be well handled. The foundry and machine plant will be operated to the fullest extent, according to present plans. There will be repair shops and arrangements will be made for manufacturing castings.

The Charleroi Iron Works is one of Charleroi's most progressive smaller industries. It manufactures all kinds of architectural and ornamental iron work, railings, stairs, fire escapes, jail cells, brackets, fences, illuminating cellar doors, window guards, gratings, grills and any number of other things. Isaac Wakefield is the general manager of the plant. At the present time the iron works is engaged on a contract for stairs to be put in a new California building.

DONORA TO VOTE ON SCHOOL BOND ISSUE

Clerk Harry Campbell of the county commissioners' office is preparing ballots for a special election to be held at Donora May 6, when the voters of that growing town are to decide whether the school district shall be bonded for $100,000 for school purposes. The statement as to the use of the money is as follows:

"Shall the indebtedness of the school district of the borough of Donora be increased by an issue of bonds in the sum of $100,000 for the purpose of providing a fund out of the purpose of $25,000 shall be applied toward the payment of the floating debt of said school district and $75,000 of which fund shall be used to pay the cost and expense of the erection of a school building for said school district?"

Factory Fire Loss Slight

Firemen Called Out at Night by Alarm From Imperial Glass Plant

The firemen had a run Thursday night at about 10:30 o'clock to the Imperial Glass company's factory at Tenth street to find that their presence was hardly necessary. A foot-board at one of the tanks at the plant had turned in the alarm though the had turned in the alarm though the slight conflagration could have been controlled by the factory fire fighting apparatus. Little damage was done, though considerable excitement was caused.

TO START WORK SOON

Contractor Arrigo Files Bond of $2,000 on Paving Contract

MAY BEGIN ON MONDAY

At an adjourned meeting of council Thursday evening the bond of Thomas Arrigo for $2,000 insuring the faithful performance of his contract to grade, curb and pave portions of Fallowfield avenue and portions of Long alley was accepted. Contractor Arrigo, who was awarded the contract at a meeting held on Tuesday night is making arrangements to start the work of grading on Monday. Fallowfield from Ninth street to its intersection with Lincoln avenue below Tenth street and Long alley from First to Fourth streets and from Eighth to Eleventh streets are to be paved.

An ordinance was taken up setting the grade for a sidewalk on the west side of Lincoln avenue from Sixth street to Thirteenth street. It passed first reading and was ordered printed and posted.

A request was presented from the police department to the effect that arrangements be made in the lockup building for keeping the automobile patrol. The matter was placed in the hands of the real estate committee.

Potatoes Advance to $1.00 a Bushel and Meat Keeps Soaring--Whole Trouble is Blamed on the Flood

Floods, tornadoes and other unusual happenings throughout several of the western states have affected considerably the prices of food. Meats and potatoes among other things are selling higher than they have for years, and all because it is hard to get them through from the west promptly, is the statement made by those who set the prices.

Potatoes have jumped from 70 to 75 cents to $1 a bushel retail rate with a suddenness that is surprising. There are not as many to be had

THOUSANDS AT SPRING OPENING

Constant Stream of Humanity Pours Through Pfelehardt Store Thursday

WAS BEST IN HISTORY

Thousands, it might be said, visited the furniture and carpet house of W. B. Pfelehardt on Fallowfield avenue Thursday when his annual spring opening was held. The event was a notable one, made so by the lavish entertainment provided by Mr. Pfelehardt and his assistants.

The store which has the honest claim to being the best arranged and most handsome and complete along the Monongahela valley this side of McKeesport, had its beauty enhanced with decorative pieces. Potted flowers and greens were used tastefully.

In the afternoon there was a crowd but in the evening there was a crush. Orchestral music was furnished by an orchestra of five pieces afternoon and evening on the second floor and dancing added to the gaiety of the occasion.

There were four demonstrations during the day. The first one that attracted the visitor as he entered was the Victrola demonstration. Representatives of the Victor company were on hand and gave recitals on the high priced machines.

Another most interesting demonstration and one that attracted very great attention was that of the McDougall Kitchen cabinet. This cabinet seems to have a place for everything that is used in a kitchen. The Visible range was demonstrated and hot biscuits were made and distributed from it during the day. Steams & Foster representatives were at the store to demonstrate the mattress that they manufacture and which has become famous.

Mr. Pfelehardt carries what is the very best in furniture and house equipment, and in his spacious store it was showed at its best. He carries in stock all classes of suites manufactured from all the best grades of material. His house is filled with what is the latest.

Handsome souvenirs were given to each adult visitor. People came from many points to attend the opening. There were large crowds from Monessen, Belle Vernon and other nearby points. As an opening the event was one of the best that this part of the valley ever witnessed. As one visitor remarked, Pfelehardt always does things right.

Mr. Pfelehardt estimates that he

PRESENTS BOYS WITH MARBLES

Brother of Local Man Remembers Boyhood Days in Greensburg

SENDS A LARGE ORDER

Announcement has come from William A. Johnston of Barborton, O., to Greensburg boys that he has shipped 1,400 bags of marbles for distribution among the boys. The juvenile population is rejoicing.

Mr. Johnston, who is a brother of Jesse K. Johnston of Charleroi spent his boyhood days in Greensburg. Like Jesse K. Johnston, who is giving away cherry trees to boys in Charleroi, he desires to do something to make the juveniles happy.

The marbles have been shipped to Postmaster R. A. F. Lyon and Col. George Detar, who in days gone by were opponents of Mr. Johnston as marble players.

CLASS CONFIRMED BY BISHOP AT THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Rev. G. G. Whitehead, bishop of the Pittsburgh diocese of the Episcopal church, visited Charleroi Thursday and confirmed a class of 14 at St. Mary's Episcopal church in the evening. The class was composed mostly of adults. Rev. Whitehead preached before the confirmation on the subject "What the Episcopal Church Stands For." He complimented Rev. L. W. Shey, rector and the vestry on their good work in this parish.

ROAD BOND QUESTION BACK IN COMMITTEE

Degree to be Exemplified

Local Knights of Columbus to go to Pittsburg on Sunday

Fully 100 members of Charleroi council No. 956 Knights of Columbus, will go to Pittsburg on Sunday to be present at the exemplification of the third degree of the order, which will take place at 2 o'clock at Duquesne Garden. A class of 160 candidates will receive the degree which will be exemplified by District Deputy Supreme Knight A. S. McSwigan, assisted by a team from Erie and Cleveland. The exemplification will be the last in the Pittsburg district until next fall.

Coup is Pulled Off With Result That Vote is Delayed

FIGHTS EXTRAVAGANCE

Militant Minority of Appropriations Committee on the Warpath

Harrisburg, April 4—In an effort to get through a bill providing that the funds derived from the proposed bond issue of $50,000,000 for state roads be apportioned to the various counties in proportion to the number of miles of roads in each to be improved, the resolution for the proposed amendment to permit the issue was referred back to the committee in the house Thursday. The opponents of the administration took advantage of the absence of many of the members who had started home to make the coup and they succeeded in pulling it off.

Governor Tener was much annoyed at this delay, but will exert every effort to get the resolution through. It is not at all likely that the resolution can be defeated, but the opponents of the administration are doing all they can to harass the measure and delay it.

A militant minority, which soon may become a majority among the 40 members of the house appropriations committee is fighting alleged extravagant bills calling for the expenditure of state funds. There are appropriation bills before the committee totaling more than $100,000,000, while the estimated revenue of the State during the next two years is about $52,000,000. The minority faction is demanding that appropriations for charitable and educational purposes be given precedence over what are regarded as attempts to squander State money.

The minimum wage bill introduced by Representative Bigger of Allegheny was advanced from second to third reading in the house. The measure provides for the appointment of a commission by the governor to thoroughly investigate the wages of women and girls employed in the various industries throughout the State to study their modes of living and the cost and dangers thereof.

The Sheatz mothers' compensation bill, which provides that the various counties with state aid may pay to a mother a certain sum monthly for the support of her children passed second reading in the house.

At the instance of the Consumers' League, which has evinced a keen interest in the measure the bill creating a department of labor and industry was amended as it passed the house on second reading so that a woman will be placed upon the board.

Speaker Altar served notice that when the house adjourned Thursday until next Monday that the members must come back next week prepared for a Friday's session. Some of the members are getting anxious to adjourn, now that all their pay was drawn on April 1.

MONEY FOR SUFFERERS

Business Men's Association to Gather Subscriptions

COMMITTEE TO SOLICIT

The question of subscribing aid for the flood sufferers of Ohio and other states came up for discussion at a meeting of the Charleroi Business Men's Association held Thursday night. An executive committee consisting of Kerfoot W. Daly, R. H. Rush and E. W. Hastings, was appointed to receive contributions and sub-committees will be appointed to solicit subscriptions, which are to be printed in the Mail.

The question of establishing more lights about the Charleroi streets was brought up and discussed and there is a likelihood that the location of new lights will be urged. There was a good attendance at the meeting.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom, to remove from our midst and roll of membership, our beloved Brother John Watkinson, who was called away after a few months of painful illness on March 8, 1913 and by whose death Tom Bowling Lodge has lost a faithful and diligent member. Therefore we as members and officers of the above Lodge wish to tender to you his bereaved wife, and family our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in this time of sorrow. And we bid you and your family take comfort in the thought that where he has gone, there will be no more pain or suffering and look up to Him, who says come unto me all ye that are weary and heavy laden and I will give you rest. Lord not my will, But Thine be done.

The statement this week that
since the institution of the parcel
post by the United States government the business of transporting
small packages by the various express companies has fallen off twenty-
five per cent is significant. This means that a big toll of exorbitant
charges has for years and years been
unjustly exacted from the public,
just because the big express companies had enough influence in Congress to keep the government from
utilizing its postal service in its proper sphere.

What would have been the result
if the untold millions in postal deficits had been saved to the people together with the billions more of excess transportation charges the public has paid to the express companies
all these years is difficult to imagine.
Perhaps the press of the high cost of
living might not have been so acute
as it is today. When it is considered
that this is only one item out of
thousands of others where special interests have profited at the expense
of the public, it is no wonder that the
accumulated burden is beginning to drag. The postal parcel post is working and is saving the people money.
In addition to the saving, the obvious lesson should be still more valuable, as it shows: the people that they can run the government for the benefit of the many instead of the
few.

WOULD PAY DIVIDENDS.

Concerning the Sheatz bill, which
has been introduced in the state senate giving the people the privilege to
use the school houses as social centers and community meeting places,
the matter is favorably commented on
by the Harrisburg Telegraph thusly:
"The Sheatz bill to make public
school buildings available for social
gatherings and community purpose is
founded upon principles of philanthropy and efficiency. It would enable us to pay better dividends, so
to speak, on our costly school property, and it would in this improve
the moral tone of the community.
It has proved these things

without following them up as should
have been done."

meeting places for the people is
what promotes the popularity of the saloon and the private drinking club.
Jack London, in the Saturday Evening Post, says that John Barleycorn
gets in his insidious work by first
providing a meeting place and social-
ability and men cultivate his acquaintance as a matter of duty in payment
for the chance to get shelter, warmth
and fellowship. When the public
furnishes this opportunity for
warmth, shelter and unrestrained
fellowship under normal conditions
the temptation to drink and gamble
will be reduced to minimum. The
school house used as social centers
would surely be a dividend paying
proposition.

She was a little Monessen girl;
She was just sixteen she said.
Her hair was thick with many a curl

But it was found on record plain, Writ out elaborate,
She was in fact—it gives one pain—
No less than twenty-eight.

Between Oscar and Woodrow collaborating the country is to be given a new tariff, but that's not the whole story.

Speaking of the tariff, wonder if
they won't turn it over to Bryan for
the final say. And wonder if the country wouldn't be glad if they did.

Imagine what a cubist cartoon of
the new cabinet would look like.

A St. Louis girl who was sent to lobby for the equal suffrage bill is accused of having sat on the sofa with a legislator. But what is a job like that for anyhow?

Some people think the Ohio was flooded because Caro, after the Egyptian city, is located along its banks.

A better era is coming for the country and big business has adjusted itself to the new conditions, says the Secretary of Commerce. It is im-

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Rev. Charles E. Snyder of the
Pittsburg Unitarian Church preached last Sunday night on "The Modern Newspaper." He said: "The newspaper is one of the three most influential agencies of education today. Society itself is the greatest educator,
the school the next and the newspaper
comes next, practically having more
influence than the church, as it reaches more people.

"This condition is not an evidence
of the passing need of the church as an educational influence, but an indi-cament of the importance with which the churches have permitted themselves to degenerate. Wrapped in
sommolence and self-satisfaction and
stupid in the consciousness of divine
election the great number of the
churches long ago dropped out of the

ence in public education.
"The newspapers take their place
and assume the immense responsibility of leadership for truth in fact
and in thinking, for intellectual honesty, for moral purpose, and for social righteousness."

An agricultural paper tells how
one farmer keeps his boys happy and contented on the farm. The farmer
narrates his system thusly:

"I wa'n't feelin' very good the other day and I went down to Jim Hix-son's a bit. I told the boys to hoe
corn till I got back. Jack's eleven,
Dan's ten, and Mike's eight; yeh
know? Wal, when I got back yere, they all wuz knockin' a bail about
with a stick! Jimminy! I cut a big switch and lit into all of 'em, and I whaled 'em good and plenty. They
went off tuh the field a-bawlin' each
with his hoe. Haw, haw, haw!
They'll hoe that corn now."

Literary Coincidence.
Resemblance does not always mean
plagiarism. There was no plagiarism
certainly in Newman's line, "The night
is dark, and I am far from home," though it has been pointed out that it
almost exactly reproduces a line in a play printed in 1599. This play is
"Two Angry Women of Abington," by Henry Porter, and the original line runs, "Tis late and dark, and I am
far from home."

POPPING CORN.

Why the Heat Literally Turns the
Grains Inside Out.

A grain of popcorn is filled with
tightly packed starch grains. The interior of the grain is divided into a large number of cells, each of which
may be likened to a tiny box, the walls
whereof are sufficiently strong to withstand considerable pressure from with-
in. Upon the application of heat the
moisture present in each little box is
converted into steam that finally escapes by explosion.
To obtain a satisfactory popping there is required a very high degree of heat. This causes the greater part of the cells to explode simultaneously.
The grain of corn then literally turns
inside out and is transformed into a relatively large mass of snow white
starch.

If corn be old and dry it will not
pop satisfactorily. A few cells near
the center of the grain may burst,
but the general result will be unsatis-
factory. At the base of the kernels,
where they are attached to the cob,
the cells appear to be driest, and it
has been observed that these cells are
seldom broken in the popping.

Practically all the popcorn raised
for market in this country comes from
New England. Great quantities of it
are popped, buttered and packed for
sale all over the United States.—

MRS. WM. ARCHER

Tells Mothers What To Do For Delicate Children.

"My fourteen year old daughter was very thin and delicate. She had a bad cough so that I became very much alarmed almost her health. She was nervous and did not sleep well, had very little appetite and doctors did not help her. Having heard so much about Vinol, I decided to give it a trial. It has helped her wonderfully. She can sleep all night now without coughing once, in fact her cough is gone. Her appetite is greatly improved and she has gained in weight. Vinol is a wonderful medicine and I will always keep it in the house. I wish every mother knew what Vinol will do for delicate children." Mrs. Wm. Archer, Long Branch, N. J.

preparation without oil is a wonderful body builder and strength creator for both young and old. We promise to give back your money in every such case where Vinol does not benefit. This shows our faith in Vinol.

Strange Young Man.
"I saw your daughter with a strange young man last night?"
"You certainly did. When he asked daughter to go with him for some ice cream he asked her mother to go along, and he went home at 10 o'clock without any hints, and he wears same socks and doesn't seem to think he knows it all. He certainly is a strange young man!"—Houston Post.

Gallant.
"That pen will never come to perfection," remarked a young woman walking through a garden with Sydney Smith.

"Then let me lend perfection to the pen," said he gallantly offering her his arm.

Where to Get It.
"A simple look is all I crave," said the sentimental young man to the beaute.
"Then you'd better consult your mirror," she replied tartly.

For Hair Health

If Rexall "93" Hair Tonic does
not improve the health of your
scalp and hair, we will pay for
what you use during the trial.

We could not so strongly endorse
Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and continue
to sell it to the same people if it did not do all we claim. Should it not prove entirely satisfactory our customers would lose faith in us, we
would lose their patronage, and our
business would suffer.

If your hair is falling out or you
suffer any scalp trouble, we believe Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will do more
to eradicate the dandruff, give health
to the scalp, stimulate new hair
growth and prevent premature bald-
ness than any other human agency.
We want you to make us prove this.
We ask you to risk no money whatever. Buy a bottle of Rexall
"93" Hair Tonic, use it according to
directions for thirty days; then if
you are not entirely satisfied, come
and tell us and we will promptly hand
back the money you paid us for it.
We won't ask you to sign anything, nor even to bring the bottle
back. We won't obligate you in any way. We will take your mere
word. Could anything be more fair?
Could we do anything more to prove
our belief in Rexall "93" Hair Tonic,
and our honesty of purpose in recom-
mending it to you?

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is as pleasant to use as spring water and has
but a faint, pleasing odor. It comes in two sizes of bottles, 50c and $1.00.
You can buy Rexall "93" Hair Tonic in this community only at our store:

THE COYLE-CHARLEROI.

The great sociological phenomenon—a dual personality—that is the subject of more or less scientific controversy, and which is so strikingly portrayed in fiction by Robert Louis Stevenson in "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," was shown in moving picture drama at the Coyle Theatre this week. With King Boggot starring in the dual characters, a most dramatic presentation was the result. The story is of the successful young physician who, wealthy, and successful, is a deep student of scientific investigation. In his normal senses he is charitable and humane, spending much time and practice in prescribing for charitable patients. In the seclusion of his laboratory he discovers that the action of a certain drug transforms the character as well as the personality of human beings entirely, and that another drug will restore the original personality. He tries the experiment on himself, and becomes a veritable demon, prowling about nights, and consorting with the lowest types of humanity. Finally he gets the spells without the use of the drug and cannot control himself. After committing murder and other acts of violence, and breaking the heart of his fiancée, he dies under the spell of the dual personality. As the physician he is Dr. Jekyll. As the degenerate he is Mr. Hyde. "The Battle of Bull Run" in three parts, the great feature Friday night, was by the same company as produced "Sheridan's Ride." A strong bill is on for Saturday, featuring the great drama of "The Flaming Arrow."

THE PALACE-CHARLEROI.

A quartet and two teams compose perhaps the strongest vaudeville bill yet presented at the Palace Theatre which opened Thursday night for the balance of the week with matinee Saturday. The Four Longhorns, are four very clever young women, who in dazzling costumes present singing and dancing acts in team work and separately. Solos, duets, and trios, of popular and classical music charmingly rendered, furnished a varied program, which was heartily enjoyed during the performance. In dancing, one of the quartet exhibits a degree of skill and grace that affords a fitting climax to their program. Clair and Metcalf are singers of rare ability, Miss Metcalf rendered some solos with fine effect. Their duet, "My Hero," from the "Chocolate Soldier," was exceptionally well rendered. "The Great Margott," in "The Silent Players," gave a delightful little skit, where the lady advances agent of a troupe of burlesque artists most effectively "strings" a rural old jasper, who is a grocer, opera house manager, drayman and constable. There is a bunch of delightful slang in the skit, but at the same time it is clean and funny, with nothing suggestive. Friday night the Pathe Weekly is shown, as well as the usual service of moving pictures, which is changed nightly. The vaudeville is making a great hit at the Palace and every bill has brought good houses.

THE STAR-CHARLEROI.

Manager Tom B. Cowan started the week with a big special feature and double show at the Star Theatre. This was "The Favorite Son," a two reel Kay Bee, and "The Nobleman's Triumph, or the Winning of the Heiress." The latter was a powerful society drama, which appealed to the sentimental side of human nature. The Kay Bee film, however, was a winner. It tells the story of a war drama, where a young man, the favorite son, enlists, but is a coward at heart. His brother saves him from the disgrace of a coward on the battle field, performing many acts of self-sacrifice. The favorite son tells his brother's sweetheart that the latter is killed in battle and persuades her to marry him. The missing brother returns and the coward is finally killed in battle and the story ends properly. The Star's repertoire was rich in humor this week one of the best funny films being "Why Mrs. McFadden Looked Out." The Mutual Weekly is billed for Saturday, and is particularly interesting. "A Mystery of Wall Street," "The Jealous Waiter" and "The Stolen Purse" were some of the most interesting dramas of the week. The Saturday week end bill is most attractive.

THE ALVIN-PITTSBURG.

Mrs. Leslie Carter will appear at the Alvin Theatre, Pittsburgh, next Monday night for the week and will present during the engagement an interesting repertoire consisting of four splendid plays. They are A. W. Pinero's "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray" on Monday, Friday and at the Saturday matinee; "Zaza" on Tuesday; "Camille" at the matinee and night performances on Wednesday and Pinero's comedy "The Gay Lord Quex" on Saturday night. The role of Paula Tanqueray is one of the most exacting, most powerful and strongly emotional that Mrs. Carter has ever been seen in. Every phase of her dramatic art is brought out in her portrayal of Paula. There is a new generation of the theatregoers that has never seen Mrs. Carter as Zaza, because she has not appeared in the part in the last six years. As Mrs. Carter will not be seen as Zaza again the close of her present season those who have never seen her wonderful acting of a role which when first done, brought forth comparisons with the greatest acting ever exhibited by Sara Bernhardt, should avail themselves of the final opportunity. "Camille" is one of the best plays technically the theatre knows, and has been acted times without number by players great and small. Pinero's "The Gay Lord Quex" has been and still remains one of the most notable of theatrical successes. It has made a greater sensation than any comedy written in the English language in last quarter of a century. Each play will be handsomely produced with special scenery for each play, and Mrs. Carter is said to display in these different roles costumes that are gorgeous and that are stunning and beautiful. She will have a large company.

THE NIXON-PITTSBURG.

All the Oriental splendor of the Indian Durbar which King George V of England journeyed to Delhi in India to take part in elaborate new production of "Ben-Hur," which inaugurates an engagement, at the Nixon Theatre the week commencing Monday evening April 14, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday. Never before in the history of the world has there been so much wealth expended on the presentation of a historical spectacle. Flashing jewels, dazzling armor, magnificent robes, superb draperies, the marvelous rugs of the Far East, the costly furnishings of two thousand years ago—all these things are combined and displayed in the wonderful revival. Carpenters, electricians and a horde of other workers are now in possession of the Nixon Theatre stage, getting ready for this production and when the curtain does rise on the solemn and beautiful scene in the desert where the Wise Men are waiting for the signal, the Star of Bethlehem, to point them the way to the Messiah, the spectator will view the spectacular achievement of American stagecraft. With this new spectacle Klaw and Erlanger have built for themselves a monument as enduring as the name of Shakespeare in the glories and beauties of the new setting for the greatest story the world has ever known, "The Tale of the Christ." The sale of seats begins Thursday, April 10. The prices are 50c to $1.50.

THE DUQUESNE-PITTSBURG.

By all odds the most noteworthy attraction announced thus far for the Harry Davis Stock Players at the Duquesne Theatre, this season, will be the first performance in stock, next week, of the most successful play of the present century, "The Man From Home," by Booth Tarkington and Harry Leon Wilson, in which William Hodge starred for six consecutive seasons with triumphant success. The play, as everybody knows, is a very effective expose of the international marriage question, and especially the particular phase thereof that pertains to the alliance of scions of noble families with the daughters of American millionaires. The central character of the drama is a quaint and shrewd country lawyer from Kokomo, Indiana, to whom has been entrusted the guardianship of the son and daughter of a wealthy old friend. They are both dispatched to the Continent, to complete their education. When they meet a time but impoverished British family, who gather them into their coils, and arrange a marriage between the son of the household and the daughter of the Yankee millionaire. This they almost succeed in doing, when the lawyer—Daniel Voorhees Pike appears on the scene. It does not take him long, however, to discover their plot. His quiet, unobtrusive but determined personality soon makes itself felt and he finally lays bare their schemes and puts the entire kit and bundle of adventurers to rout. Charles Gunn will have this famous Hodge part of Daniel Voorhees Pike at the Duquesne, next week, when the Davis Players present the piece for the first time there in stock and at the popular prices current at the Duquesne.

THE SIMPLE LIFE.

No Trouble For Australian Aborigines to Break Camp.

An Australian aborigine breaks the monotony of his life by frequent visits to other camps; but his preparations for these holidays have a simplicity about them which must appeal to many a worried housewife. It is thus described by Messrs. Spencer and Gillies in "Across Australia."

"Apart from ceremonies and dances, the one great break in the monotony of life is paying visits to strange camps. Packing up is not a tedious process. The man simply walks out of camp, carrying his spear, spear thrower, boomerangs and shield; the woman takes the youngest child across her hip, balances a pichil on her head, and with one arm round the child and a digging stick in her free hand, she is ready for the road. The girl children and younger women look after the puppies, which are never left behind on any account, and, when unable to walk, are carried in pichils like young babies.

"Two minutes at most is all the time required for an aboriginal family to pack up and start and there is no trouble in regard to the house while the owners are away. If any one chooses to occupy it during their absence he can do so, but the owners will see at a glance who has been in possession while they have been away."

WHISTLER AT WORK.

The Eccentric Artist Had a Method That Was All His Own.

In "Memories of James McNeill Whistler," by Thomas R. Way, the author allows us a glance at the artist's methods during his residence at the white house in Tite street, built from the designs of his friend, E. W. Godwin, the architect.

"The studio was surprisingly different from the room he previously used in Lindsay row, and entirely unlike the studios usually occupied by other artists. I remember a long, not very lofty room, very light, with windows along one side; his canvas beside his model at one end and at the other, near the table which he used as a palette, an old Georgian looking glass, so arranged that he could readily see his canvas and model reflected in it. Those who used such a mirror (as he did constantly) will know that it is the most merciless of critics.

"I marvelled then at his extraordinary activity, as he darted backward and forward to look at both painting and model from his point of view at the extreme end of the long studio. He always used brushes of large size with very long handles, three feet in length, and held them from the end with his arm stretched to its full extent. Each touch was laid on with great firmness, and his physical strength enabled him to do without the assistance of a maulstick, while the distance at which he stood from the canvas allowed him to have the whole of a large picture in sight and so judge the correct drawing of each touch."

MADE THE CLERKS WORK.

A Senator Wanted Information and Found a Way to Get It.

"Congress makes lots of unnecessary trouble for the government clerks," said a veteran employee, "but the worst case I know of occurred some years ago. A certain senator asked the comptroller of the currency to tell him how much stock a certain man had in a national bank. He was informed that such information was regarded as confidential and could not be given out.

"We'll see about that," said the senator, who was plainly disappointed and displeased.

"Several days later he secured the passage of a resolution calling upon the secretary of the treasury to furnish the senate with the names and holdings of the stockholders in all the national banks in the country. He really wanted to know only the interest of one man in a bank, but he knew that he couldn't get a resolution of that kind through the senate, so he included the stockholders in all national banks.

"It took the entire force of the comptroller's office several weeks to prepare the information, and when it reached the senate nobody paid any attention to it except the author of the resolution, and he merely looked at the mass of papers only long enough to see about the man he was after and then tossed the papers aside. It was an immense lot of work for nothing."—Washington Star.

HOME TALENT PLAY TO BE GIVEN HERE BY LOCAL CHURCH

Under direction of Tom Cunningham, a four-act comedy drama will be produced at Turner Hall by local talent Tuesday and Wednesday nights of next week, April 8 and 9. The company is composed chiefly of young people of St. Mary's Episcopal church and the proceeds are for the benefit of the church fund.

The name of the play is "The Estrangement." It is a story of domestic life, where a talented and handsome wife becomes infatuated with a foreign artist and so far forgets her duties as wife and mother as to consent to an elopement. After a number of thrilling and sensational situations, the woman's better nature asserts itself, and she is brought to a realization of her mistake. The plot is full of bright and sparkling comedy as well as dramatic situations and presents a healthy moral.

Tom Cunningham, who has charge of the production was formerly coach of the Green Room Club of Franklin-Marshall college. Miss Marjorie Williams, who has successfully appeared in various home talent productions, will have the leading feminine role in the play, while the other parts are taken by young people who have had more or less experience in the same line.

Big Broncho feature made by the original 101 Ranch people at the Star Theatre tonight. 216-11

How Careless!

A circus man tells a story illustrating how soft hearted and sympathetic some of the ringmasters are when the acrobats get hurt. The heroine of the story was a girl who did the four horse act, the six horse act, the trapeze and the flying bar, for all of which she received the princely remuneration of $40 a week.

One day she fell forty feet from the trapeze and sustained precipitous and ill advised on her left wrist, broke the bone near the elbow. The ringmaster ran up and sympathized as follows, with certain profane remarks which are here excerpted:

"What in thunder do you mean by falling out of that trapeze? I'm a sor of a gun if some of you ginks don't try to put a crimp into this show every time we lift the tent!"—Popular Magazine

To Our Regret We Have to Charge Exorbitant Prices For Potatoes.

We sold our stock of potatoes at 75 cents per bushel and when we had to pay 90 to 85 cents per bushel to wholesalers who profiting by the shortage sold what they had in stock at fancy figures.

We have a car of fancy white potatoes rolling, due to arrive any time, which we offer at 75c per bushel. You can place your order now and insure prompt delivery on arrival.

Satisfactorily Defined.

Willie—Pa. what is the meaning of the expression "touch and go?" Faps—It's very simple, my son. It means extreme speed and refers to the professional borrowers, who make a touch and go so fast you seldom see them again.

Never Had a Chance.

"Why have you never run for office?" asked the reporter.

"When I was younger I was too poor to make a campaign; now that I am rich I don't dare to."—Detroit Free Press.
